2. Two (2) Directors will be elected from the general membership of the Corps Member Units.

Section 11. Duties of the Directors

1. Assist the President and the board of directors in their duties as necessary.
2. Directors have one vote each in matters concerning the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI. Meetings, voting and committees.

Section 1. Annual Meeting

1. An annual meeting of the Corps shall be held each year at a time and place recommended by the Adjutant and approved by the Commander. The Adjutant shall coordinate his proposal with the Branch Commanders and the Corps Chief of Staff. The meeting shall occur no earlier than October and no later than March. Each year the adjutant will announce the time and location for the meeting for the next year.

Section 2. Special Meetings

1. Special meetings can be called by the Commander or by a majority of the membership. The Corps Commander or an appointed representative must be present to preside over the meeting.

Section 3. The Corps commander may appoint a Parliamentarian as necessary at meetings who will help guide the Corps meeting by Roberts Rules of Order, Revised Edition.

Section 4. Attendance and voting.

1. Unit representatives to annual and general meetings shall be the officers and non-commissioned officers, or their appointed representatives, of the Corps member units.
2. Each full member unit of the Corps will have two (2) votes to decide any matter of Corps business. Voting representatives will be appointed by their respective units and will vote according to the decision of the majority of their unit.
3. The Corps Commander will have the power to vote only in case of a tie.
4. Members of the Corps staff or board of directors will not have a vote in Corps business unless designated as one of the representatives of their home unit.

5. A Roll Call vote will be performed unless dispensed with by the Corps Commander.

Section 5. Committees

1. Should a need arise for special committees for a decision of policy or judicial nature, the committee shall first be formed on a volunteer basis. Should this format be insufficient, names shall be drawn at random to fill the same.

2. The Corps commander will serve as member by ex-officio on all corporate committees.

3. Committees will be disbanded after their business is done or at the discretion of the Corps commander. All committees will be disbanded at the end of the Corps commanders term in office.

Article VII. Reenactments/Events

Section 1. Scheduling. A schedule of events will be presented at the annual meeting to which member units will vote on attendance of individual events.

Section 2. Event Ratings. The upcoming events will be voted upon and put into three categories; Corps Events, Corps Sanctioned Events and Company Events.

1. Corps Event: All Corps units will form a battalion/brigade under the leadership of the Corps staff or their designated substitutes. All units should have maximum attendance and are to be in Confederate uniform unless they have prior approval of the Corps commander. Individual soldiers may galvanize with their company commanders approval.

2. Corps Sanctioned Events: Corps units that attend will form a battalion/brigade, with the attending Corps and company officers forming the battalion staff as needed. Smaller units could combine into companies. Units that want to galvanize may do so.

3. Company Events: Attendance is at a unit’s discretion. Units may form together into companies. Units that want to galvanize may do so.

All events not approved as Corps Events or Corps Sanctioned Events are automatically considered Company Events and need not be voted on.

Section 3. Event Guidelines: The following general guidelines shall be followed by all Corps units when in the field.

1. Camps shall be laid out in accordance with the practices of the period and the lay of the ground. They shall include company streets with a headquarters area at the head of the street when practicable. Higher level headquarters should be as near the center of the camps as practicable. Unit cohesion will be maintained wherever possible. Commanders will provide for special camps as needed for civilians or units that desire special camps such as soldier only or hard core camps.

2. Respect for differing styles of camping will be maintained. Military protocol and decorum will be followed by members of the Corps at all events.

Section 4. Event Orientation: Branch Adjutants are urged to prepare Operations Orders prior to each event. These Orders should cover how and when and where to report for field duty and should cover a brief history of the event and the units to be portrayed. Daily operations Orders are encouraged, especially for larger events. These should include scenarios and expected outcomes. All units are are encouraged to conform with the tactics and appearance appropriate for the event.

ARTICLE IX. REGULATIONS REGARDING INDIVIDUAL SAFETY

Section 1. The safety regulations followed by the Corps are contained in the separate document entitled “Longstreet's Corps Safety Regulations.”

ARTICLE X. CORPS DRILL

Section 1. Corps infantry units will utilize Major William Gilham's Manual of Instruction for the Volunteers and Militia of the United States. When conducting drill, Infantry units will utilize school of the soldier manual of the musket. Corps drill will conform with the school of the battalion, and all units will conform to heavy and light infantry tactics, except for cavalry and artillery which shall conform with their own tactics. Exceptions to this section may be approved by the corps commander.

Section 2. At each Corps event there will be two (2) periods of infantry drill, not to exceed forty-five (45) minutes. These periods of instruction will be mandatory for all Corps units wishing to participate.

Section 3. At the discretion of the Corps commander, the period of instruction stated in Section 2 above may be shortened if weather conditions so merit.

Section 4. All attempts will be made to schedule a Corps camp of instruction as near to the beginning of the year as possible. Units are encouraged to work together on a regional basis to schedule camps of instruction. Multi branch camps of instruction are encouraged.

ARTICLE XI. General Regulations

Section 1. The minimum age to carry firearms or crew artillery pieces shall be left to the discretion of the individual units, unless restricted by event regulations.

Section 2. The use of illegal drugs shall not be tolerated during any participation in any Corps event. Infractions of this regulation will result in immediate dismissal from the event and possible restrictions from further events.

Section 3. Consumption of alcohol will only be allowed if its use does not conflict with event regulations, event sponsor's orders or local/state laws. Consumption of alcohol shall be confined to camp, out of public view and only from period containers. Commanding officers of individual units will be responsible for upholding this regulation.

Section 4. Members shall be responsible for conducting themselves in an orderly manner so as to show consideration for those other units participating. Members will be responsible for actions and conduct of family and guests.
Section 5. Unit commanders shall handle disciplinary action within their units. Inter-unit discipline issues or disputes will be reported to the Corps Provost through the chain of command. The Corps Commander will take appropriate action on minor issues. More serious issues will be decided by a board of officers appointed by the Corps Commander.

Section 6. Officers of member units shall handle improper actions of Corps officers.

Section 7. Officers of member units will be elected/appointed by the members of their respective companies or regiments in accordance with unit regulations.

Section 8. Officers commanding companies or batteries and below will normally hold the rank of Captain or below. Staff Officers at Battalion level will normally hold the rank of Major with the restriction of one Major per Battalion staff. Corps staff will normally hold the rank of Lt Col with a limit of one Lt Col per staff. Commanders of the three branches will normally hold the rank of Colonel. Exceptions at all levels must be approved by the Corps Commander. All members of the Corps should strive to match rank to the size of the event, level of command at the event, and number of soldiers commanded. The corps commander may make brevet promotions for larger events or special occasions. Brevet promotions are for single events only. Officers and NCO’s will revert to permanent rank after the event.

Section 9. The acceptance of non-member units who wish to fall in with the Corps as guests, at an event, will be left to the discretion of the Corps commander.

Section 10. Measures voted upon and approved by the proper majority at the Annual Meeting or any sanctioned Corps meeting will be considered binding and applicable to all Corps units and their membership. Units who do not abide by these decisions may be subject to reduction to probationary membership, limitation of privileges, or dismissal from Longstreet’s Corps. Disciplinary actions will be handled by a committee appointed by the Corps Commander.

Section 11. The Corps will reserve the right to charge annual dues to member units. Amount of dues will be set by vote of the general membership at the annual meeting. Failure to pay dues, or other fees, by the deadline set may result in reduction to probationary membership, limitation of privileges, or dismissal from Longstreet’s Corps. Disciplinary actions will be handled by the treasurer and a committee appointed by the Corps Commander.

Section 12. All units within the Corps must be insured to protect the unit and the Corps. Units electing not to use the Corps insurance must provide a copy of their insurance policy to the Adjutant at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XII. Colors

1. The Corps shall be formed under the First National, Second National, third national or Battle Flag of the Confederacy. Appropriate state flags, of Corps units, will be used as designated by the Corps Commander.

ARTICLE XIII. Miscellaneous

1. Corps officers shall maintain a copy of these regulations in their possession at all Corps events.

2. Matters not covered in these bylaws will be referred to Roberts Rules of Order, Revised Edition.

3. These regulations may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of unit representatives at a general meeting.
